Hello friend,

Do you know what weekend this is?

It's General Conference weekend! Yay!

It's my favorite weekend twice a year. Because we get to listen directly to the prophet, President Nelson, and also the twelve apostles, who are also ordained as prophets, seers, and revelators. Of course, the other leaders of the church have wonderful messages too. And the music from different choirs is inspiring.

I hope you can make it. I know these are difficult times, but the Lord has provided a way for us to make it through them. And not only to survive, but to thrive! These are the last days before Christ comes again, and you are a special spirit that was meant to be here at this time. I hope you realize that and connect with your Father in Heaven to know what great work he has for you.

Listening to General Conference is a way to do that. There will be certain speakers who will have messages that speak directly to you. Listen to them and feel the love of the Savior. He inspired them to say those words to you.

Last week was an amazing spiritual feast as we found out who the Lord has called to lead our stake for the next few years. Our new stake president, President Wright, and his counselors, President Davis, and President Barker, have received revelation to extend to us an invitation that will increase our faith. We are to find answers to the following three questions:

1. What has the Lord revealed to President Russell M. Nelson since he was called as the prophet?
2. What is my part in these revelations and adjustments?
3. How can I increase and exercise my faith to overcome any obstacle that stands in the way of acting my part?

When we act on invitations from our church leaders, we will be blessed in many ways, receive power from God, and see many miracles in our life.

So, I invite you to follow our stake presidency's guidance, and also to watch General Conference, so you can know and follow the guidance and invitations you'll receive from our church leaders.

You are loved. And needed right now. Our ward needs you. Your neighbors and friends need you. And your family needs you. Bring them the love of God. (See 1 Nephi 11: 22-23)

Thank you for being you.

Love,

Bishop Williams
